New happenings at Union. Above: The Union High Steppers and the all famous "SARGENT" Maples. Right: Also a sight seen often in the parking lot, a wrecker. Below: The parking stickers we see on everyones bumper, and the rifle squad the band had this year.

Unions all school productions succeeded in bringing audiences hours of entertainment. First with the Talent Review then with the musical Li'L Abner. Both proved Union to be the best.

The Senior assembly and Senior breakfast were just two of the activities seniors were encumbered with the last weeks of school.

Gambling and dancing were enjoyed by Juniors and Seniors during a night at "Monte Carlo". Betting with "prom money" in the gambling casino was one of the many highlights of the evening.

Hats flying in the air, laughs, smiles were many of the actions expressed by this years seniors at graduation.

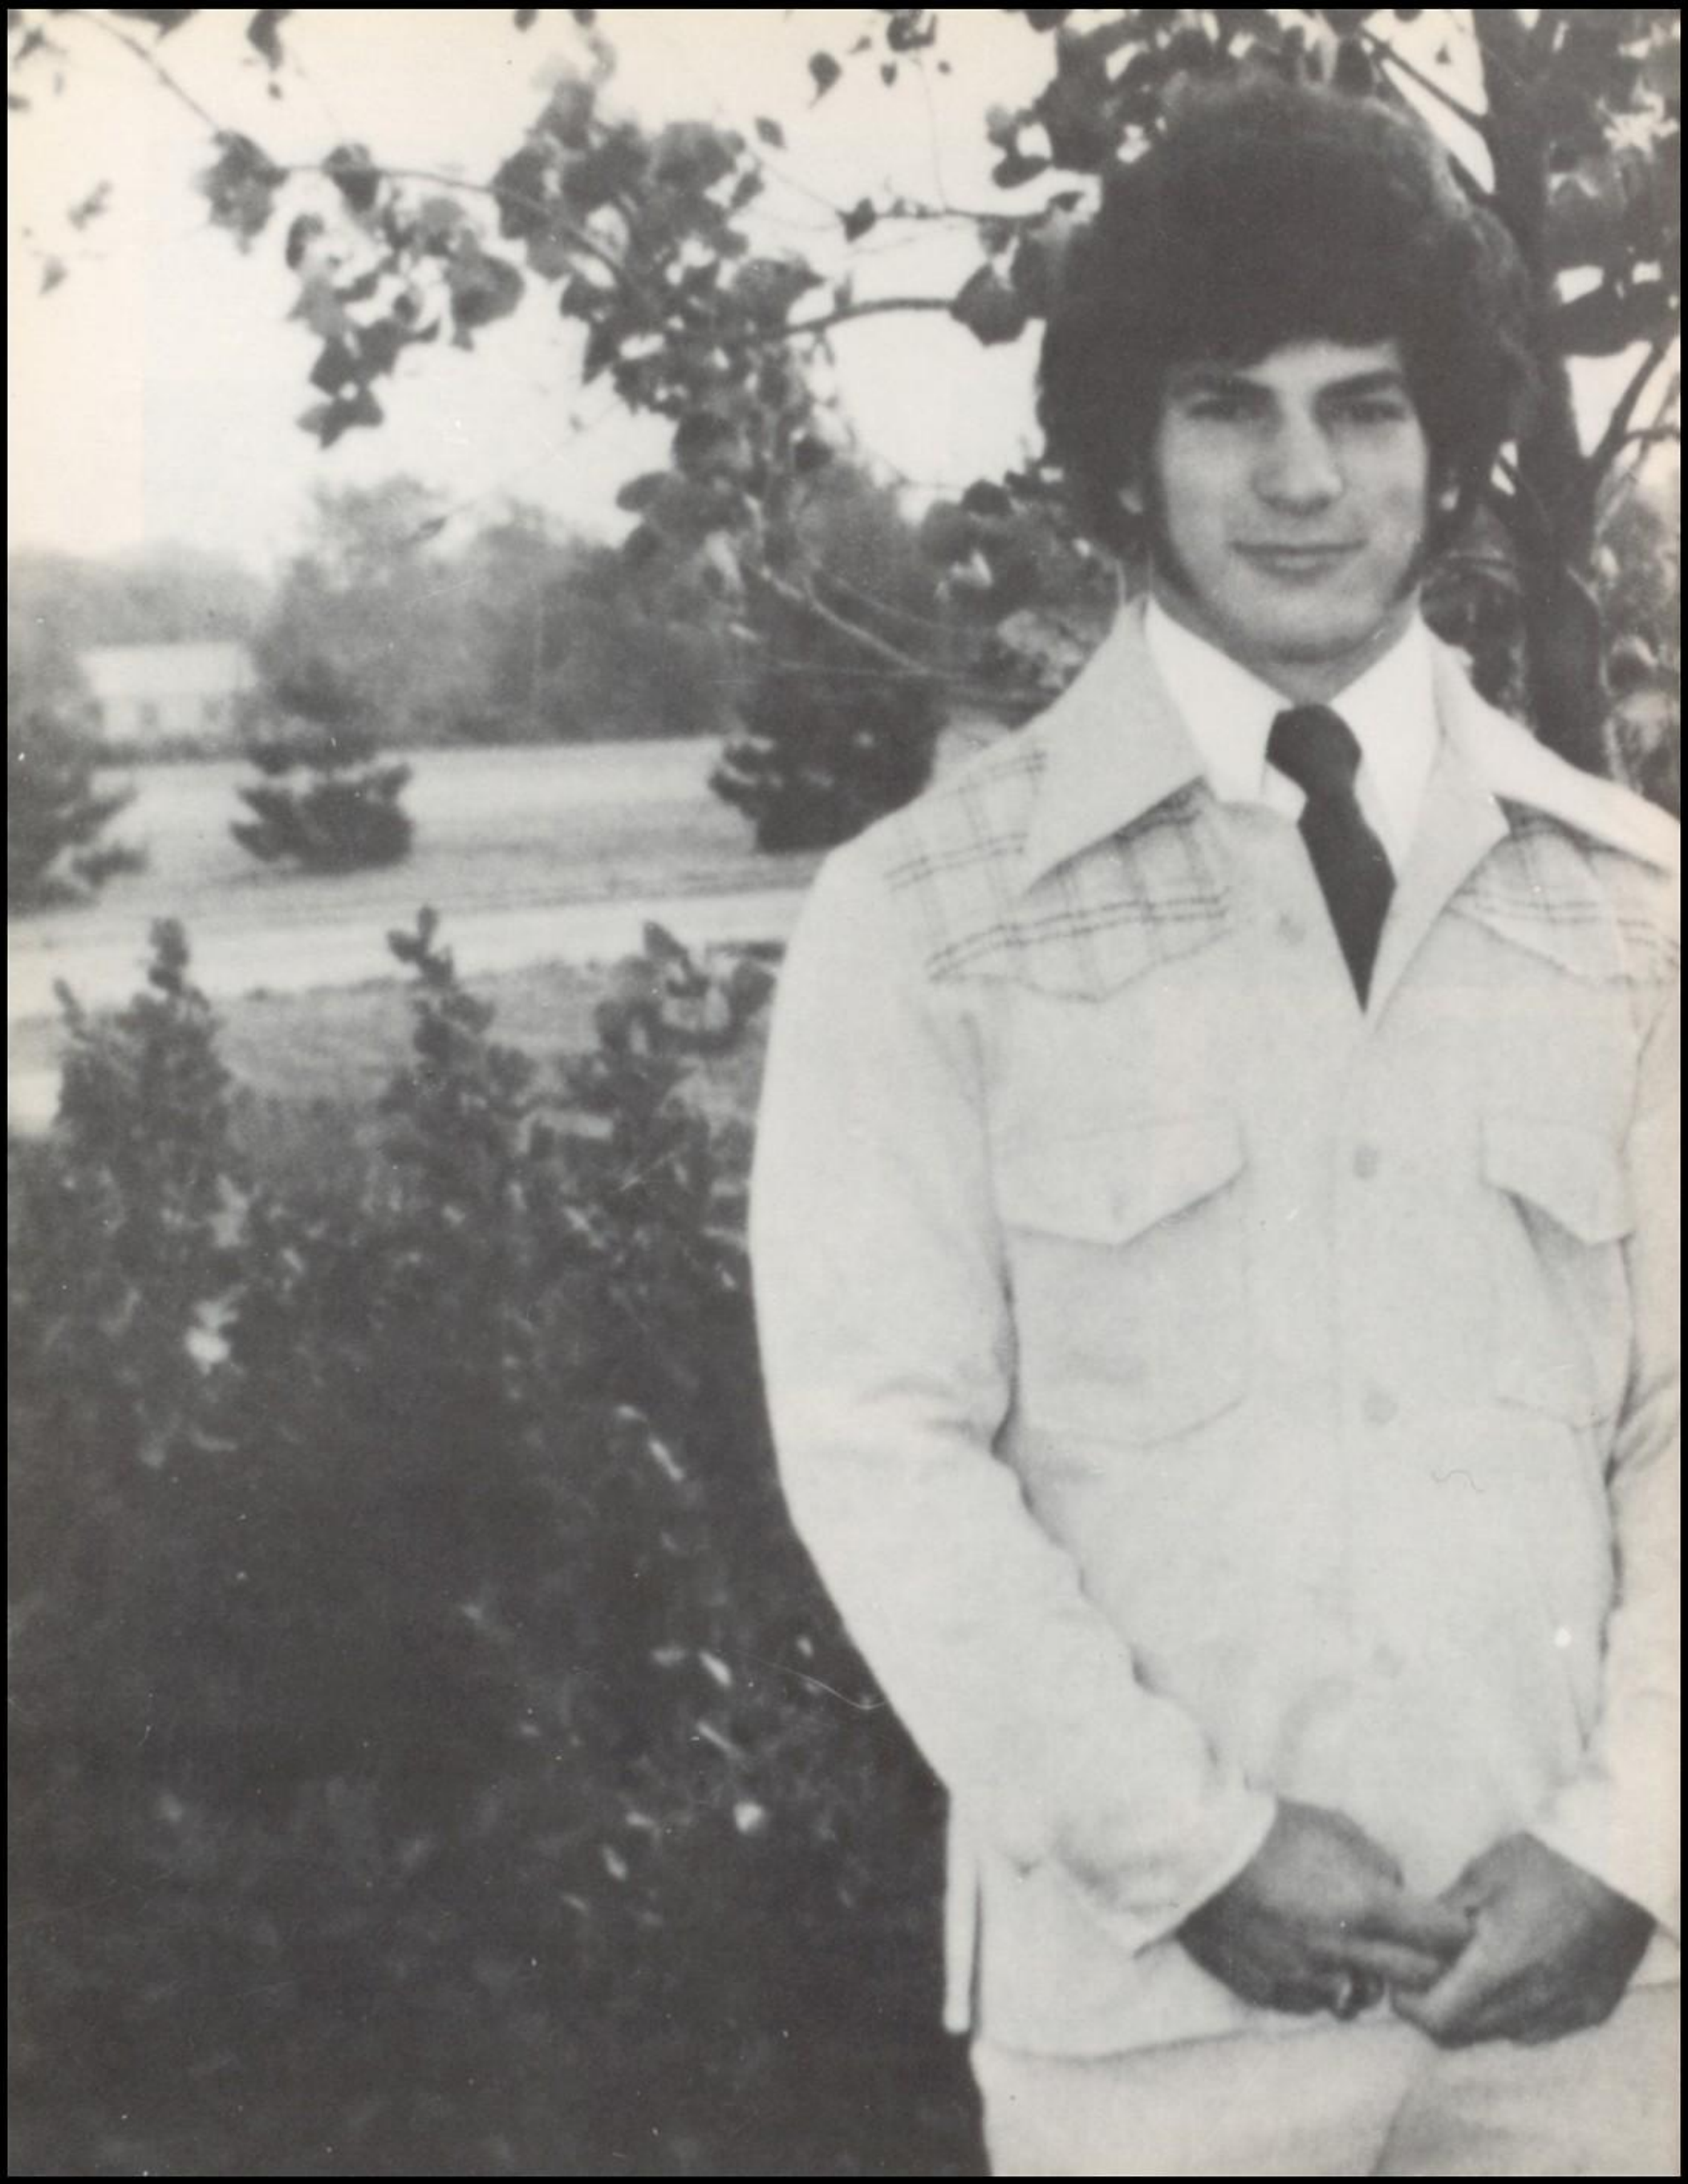
Honors



Mr. and Miss Union 1978

Many would describe Shawn McWilliams, 1978 Mr. Union, as the quiet, mature type with dark hair, dark eyes, and a macho build. Shawn has gone to Union since the seventh grade and has maintained a high grade point all through these years. Shawn claims, "Grades are important to me; I don't like the dumb athlete image."
An all-around athlete, Shawn participates in football, and he enjoys weight lifting, hunting and water skiing. He added, "Athletics are a part of school life." Shawn enjoys being himself, being natural. Maybe this explains his interest in the earth, nature, and his surroundings.

Becky Schock, Miss Union for 1978, has earned this high honor by the student body. Becky has really gotten involved in this school. She is the senior class treasurer, is involved in National Honor Society, Choralettes, and Campus Life, and plays both basketball and softball.
Although athletics are important to Becky, she said "I don't think of myself as the rugged girl athlete. I'm a lady, then an athlete."
College is a part of Becky's future, along with marriage, but Becky's main concern at the present is having a good time. "I like to be with my friends," explained Becky. Becky was also selected as one of the Outstanding Students of the Month.

"I decided when I was a freshman I wanted to be Valedictorian" explained Dan Farrell, one of the Valedictorians for 1978. Dan, who is involved in many school activities, including Editor-in-Chief of "the VOICE," president of National Honor Society, Senior representative in student council, and a member of the debate team, still maintains a 4.0 grade average. Dan plans to attend either Boston University or Washington University in St. Louis to study chemical engineering, depending on the best scholarship offers. Dan has been eligible for many scholarships, including being a finalist in the Navy ROTC program.

Valedictorians

Chris Heinzelmann with a four point grade average received the honor of being co-valedictorian of Union after being here for only a few months. Chris plans to go further in her studies majoring in music and math.

Salutatorian

Marcia Matthews received the honor of Salutatorian of Union High School for the class of 1978. President of Student Council, hard-working staff member of "The Voice" and girl basketball team member are only a few of the activities of Marcia. Union will certainly miss her hard work and enthusiasm.

The stands were filled with excitement when Jana Long was crowned Union Football Queen for 1978. Joe Birge was Jana's escort and her attendants were Julie Silvey escorted by Bobby Erwin, Becky Schock escorted by Steve Moran, Patty Grove escorted by Bobby Hunter, Shawn Jackson escorted by Matt Bain, and Sere Edwards escorted by Shane Weaver.

The Basketball Queen for 1977-78 was honored Friday night, February 17 to be the first queen ever to be crowned in the new gymnasium. Becky's escort was Mark Thorne, senior. Mark is one of our first string basketball players.

Becky is captain of the girl's basketball team, and is a member of Choralettes and National Honor Society.

Excitement filled the air when Lynda Vaughn was crowned Union Band Queen for 1977-78, on Monday night, February 6, 1978.
Lynda participates in the band as a rifle twirler and during concert season plays the flute and french horn.
Charles Zimmermann, Lynda's escort, is president of Unions band and first chair trumpet.
The crown bearer was Jacob Scott, and flower girl was April Harris.

F.H.A. Sweetheart

"I am very happy to be F.H.A. Sweetheart" Shelia Knight said when she was crowned on the night of February 18, 1978 as the F.H.A. Sweetheart.
Shelia is in her second year of track and is in cross country.
Victor VanZant is Shelia's escort, and the attendants are Brenda Lange escorted by Hughes Coston, and Rhonda Elauf escorted by Steve Moran.

Shelia Knight best exemplifies the ideal Future Homemaker of America at Union High School. Besides her athletic abilities at running track, she has shown both the Seniors and Junior Powder-Puffers that Sweethearts can run also. Sheila was chosen Sweetheart based on the number of points that she accumulated by participating in various FHA activities throughout the year.

Outstanding Seniors

To become the senior of the month, these are the requirements: school spirit, school pride, and being involved in Union High School. Just making good grades isn't enough, but, then again, just being involved in school activities such as athletics does not merit this award. The Student Council is striving to recognize the outstanding well-balanced student, with leadership qualities and exceptional character. Also, the senior's attitude toward Union is greatly considered. The nominations for this honor are made by class representatives with oral recommendations following. A secret ballot vote is then taken. The president has no voting power. After the outcome of the voting, reports showing the reasons for each senior being elected to this title are drawn up and posted. Spirit, pride, attitude, achievements and contributions are what makes an outstanding student.

The reason these students are the ones chosen to receive the various awards is because they give to Union High School. Rather than sit back and let someone else do it, they chose to be the one to do it.

Seniors

Seniors of '78 were lead by President Steve Fry; Vice-President, Steve Moran; Treasurer Kay Kiper; and Becky Schock, Secretary. These able-bodied students, fiercely and with great devotion, lead the Class of '78 through adversity and ACT tests, scholarship application and graduation. This senior year was introduced with parking permits and the ever-present and all-seeing Mr. Maples. The year progressed with trying to remember to get out of class to "interview" for all of the twenty different colleges who came on campus. Senioritis set in late in January and counting days became the favorite past-time. The Class of '79 finally got the prom organized and the Seniors of '78 never looked better. It's hard to understand how the end of school is called commencement, but Union High School was never represented better than by the Class of 1978.

Yearbook is an organization that is not only unusual in its membership, we have cheerleaders, pep club presidents, drama and speech students, journalism students, student council officers, Seniors and even Freshmen. Yearbook staffers have to combine the entire school year into a few pages with photos. The pressure to pick the just right photo to get the "feeling" of the event is probably the single most difficult task to accomplish. After that, one can adjust to "Get to Work," from Weaver and "I'm going to curse" from Neighbors. It's loud, noisy, exciting and worth every minute. Nothing else at school involves so many students, for we virtually involve every student at Union High School in our pages and this years staff has worked hard to bring you a book you can look back to in 10 or 20 years with fond memories.

Organizations

Student Council

Lynda Vaughn, Kelly Kiper, Sandy Baker, Dawn Olson, Lesle Kelseaux, Cheri Fry, Monica Beal, Mr. Keeney, Marcia Matthews, Dan Farrell, Kelly Castello, Tammie O'Banion, Traci Rodriguiez, Sharon Ferguson, Tammie Scott, Cindy Gravette

Debate

Union High School Debators "Build Spirit" Better, that's the motto of this year's outstanding debate team. The debators distinguished themselves in seven tournaments at various places around the state. They qualified four teams for the regional tournament at Charles Page High School late in March.

The Pride of Union directed by Mr. Bill Stone has had a very successful year. In marching they went to the Tulsa State Fair Parade, district marching contest, Pryor Contest, and Tri-State. They received three superior ratings at these contests. During concert season they went to District and State contest receiving a superior and an excellent rating. The Drum Major was Steve Jry and colorguard captain Lisa Baine. Ray Bell the Middle School band director and Shirley Stone also helped support the band. The "Pride of Union" is held together with alot of pride and hard work. With this Union has one of the best bands in Oklahoma.

They went to district contest and received excellent ratings. Mr. Ed Tackett is the director and Sally Hinkafet, Tammie Erwin and Craig Gerin supply the accompaniment. The many extra hours these talented students spend outside of school rehearsing and performing demonstrate how love of ones activity can result in beautiful performances.

Paying dues, dressing up as little girls and working as a housewife started the year. The FHAers again slaughtered the Junior Class in the Powderpuff Football game 37-6. The year progressed with parties, kangaroo courts and selling the big yellow packages of Blue and Gold sausage. The annual points battle ended with Sheila Knight being crowned Sweetheart and Brenda Lange and Rhonda Elauf as her attendants. The Spring saw the challenge of the Seniors met with ferocity and the FHA again was victorious. The year finished off with an eventful trip to Six Flags over Texas.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a group of students who have a grade point average of 3.75 as a sophomore, 3.50 as a junior and 3.25 as a senior. This is a group that is a great honor to be a part of. Mr. Mann is the sponsor and Dan Farrell is the 1978 President.

Journalism

The '77-'78 journalism staff began the year by first changing the name of their newspaper to "The Voice." With a new advisor, Jeannie Oswalt, they stormed into the production of a paper that they and the student body would be proud of. Deadline time was, as always, frantic. "Not enough room", "not enough ads," "not enough stories" "where did my layout go", these are the pleadings of a staff under the pressure of getting to the printer on time. The staff completed the year with the best edition yet of "The Voice."

Some more of Unions finest students are those who take time to support the many organizations which Union has provided for its students. The people often serve without glory, but they have the satisfaction of knowing they also are giving to their school.

Talented seniors promised a good season, so Union coaches set high goals. However, injuries and other mishaps kept these goals out of reach. The team ended the season with an 0-10 record. Head Coach Darrell Wolfe commented, "We progressed during a season of adversity with a lot to overcome."

Even though we had a good performance against state runner-up Stillwater, Coach Wolf felt the Claremore game stood out from the rest. "We played it with more heart."

Backing the injured as well as the uninjured players were managers and trainers: Tony Blackburn, Dion Tabor, Ramona Carlin, H. D. Reed, Monica Beal, and Steve Fry. (top left) While the coaching staff: Gary Berchtold, Phil Tuttle, Land Jacobsen, Bill Padgett, J. D. Maples and Darrell Wolfe (bottom left) was busy planning strategy and giving instructions to the players.

Freshmen Get Experience

Experience is the main reason for a freshman football team. They backed up the varsity and built a strong team for the future. Even though they won no games, they learned strategic plays and athletic ability. They were taught defensive and offensive tricks to allow them new insights into the game of football.

Coaches Sandy Hanlin and Don Bailey with captains Phil Young and Mike Christianson.

Redskin Roundballers

Skill in dribbling helps Bart Dwyer keep an Owasso player from stealing the ball.

High off the ground, Mark Thorne puts a lot of energy into his tie-breaking basket.

A spin of the wheel showed the basketball team many victories. With two jolly green giants, Mark Thorne and Bart Dwyer, on the team rebounds came easy and added up to a total of 600 with Bart getting 205 and Mark with 172. The fast dribbling and hard pumping shots of Mike Koljack and Tracy Pollard helped lead the offensive game.

On December 13, 14, and 15, the Metro Tournament was held in the new gymnasium and spirit seemed to be at its highest for the year. This short wave of spirit seemed to boom through Union as the basketball teams started bringing home many victories. After all, what team wouldn't win if they had a kazoo band like ours supporting them all the way?

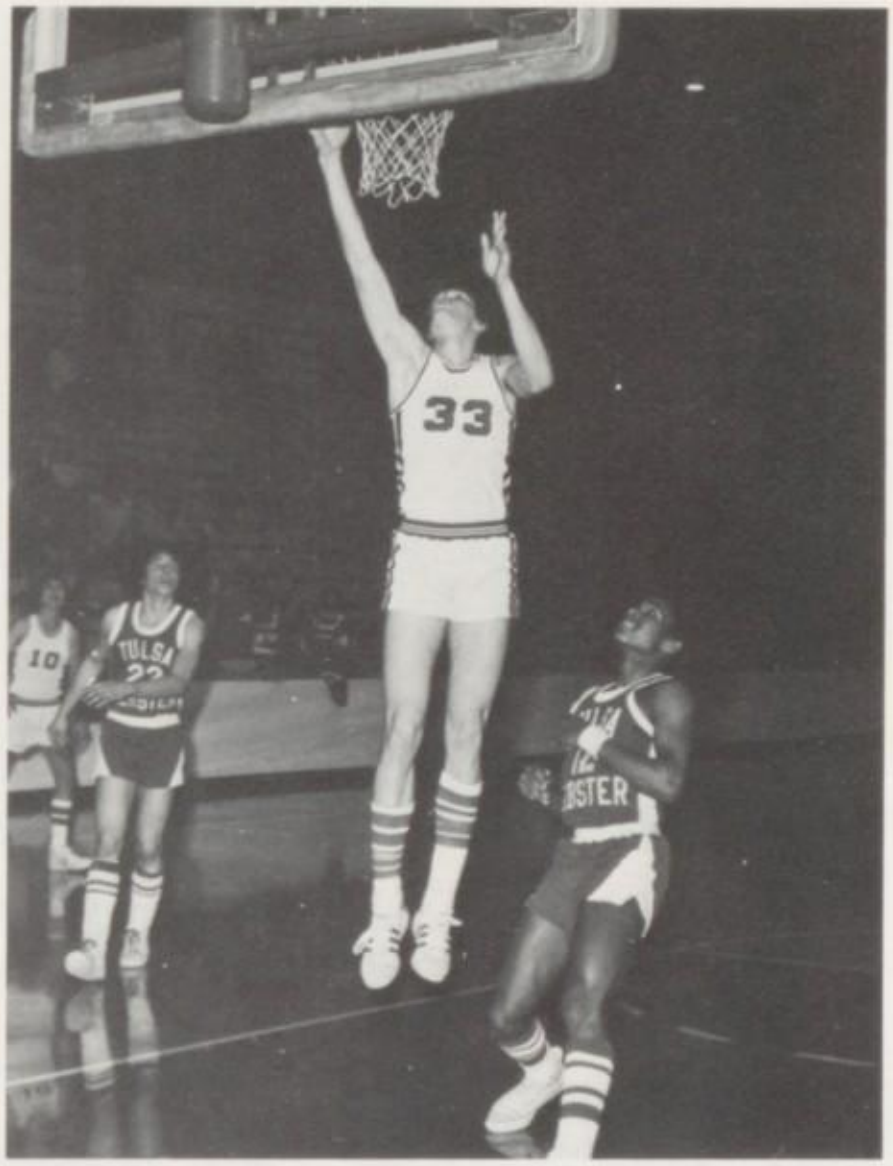
Just out of reach of a Bartlesville Sooner, Mike Koljak attempts a 2 point basket.



Determination shows on the face of Bart Dwyer as he eyes the ball before a rebound.

Wrestlers Send Two To State

The 1978 Union High School wrestling team certainly had its ups and downs this season. They opened the season at home with an afternoon match against Tulsa Central in front of the Union student body. The season continued with the first Union Wrestling Classic which was a tremendous success. Finishing with successes and defeats, and smiles and tears, the team sent Mike Neeley and Tim Redmond to the State Tournament.

Leaders like Soph. Santos Sabala who lead the pitching staff with eight wins and two losses, and Senior Joe Birge who had an overall batting average of .482 helped the baseball team compile a winning record of twelve wins and eight losses.

1978 Tennis Team

Forehand, backhand, over the net- you bet!Tennis players Susie Tobin, April Brown, Sherry Rogers, Alicia Tate, Robert Oswalt, Eric Hinkefent, Steve Hedges, and Derric Harrell were often seen at Hicks Park practicing their game.

1978 Golf Team

With a pitcher like Tina Schell and a swinger like Becky Schock, what could possibly go wrong for the girls' softball team? Very little. In fact, they had a very successful year- winning many victories and having a lot of good times. The team was well-rounded with representatives from every class making great contributions.

Early in the year, the team played a game for the student body during sixth hour. Everybody bought their tickets, but not all of them made it to the game. It's sad to think a team could go so far as state playoffs and receive so little support from the student body. Despite the lack of support, the girls gave it all they had and upheld the reputation of the Union Redskin Softball team!
